A modern day storyteller who, along with the help of the choir, takes you back in time two thousand years. A very angry King Herod has hired investigators (Sherlock & Watson) to find out why the wise men never returned and where this baby King is.

Sherlock heads straight to the Bethlehem library to do some research. Sherlock finds that the baby, Jesus, is indeed, the King of kings. Because of his discovery, Sherlock and Watson will serve Jesus, the King of kings, instead of Herod, his earthly king.
